On 8/16/73, Sgt. [redacted] Intelligence Squad, Suffolk County Police Department, made available his file relating to the subject. A review of the information therein reflects no information that has not already in the possession of San Francisco. Sgt. On 8/30/73, Sgt. [redacted] advised that a Suffolk County Police Department Undercover Agent determined subject was in the Rochester, New York, area about one month ago in the Eastern Farm Workers Association and it was also determined that the subject would probably not return to Suffolk County, New York, inasmuch as he fears that he would be arrested for weapons in his possession.

Based upon DOEDEN's previous contact with Alcoholics Anonymous (AA), on 10/17/74, [redacted] AA, 166 Geary, San Francisco, was shown a photograph of DOEDEN. [redacted] advised that DOEDEN was not familiar to him and he passed the photograph around the office but none of the workers could identify DOEDEN as a person they have seen attend AA meetings.

[redacted] noted that there are about 200 AA meeting places in San Francisco. He suggested that inquiry be made at the AA Social Club, located at 414 Grant Street, regarding DOEDEN.

On 10/24/74, [redacted] Plano Club, 414 Grant Avenue, was furnished a photograph of DOEDEN together with complete description. He advised that although DOEDEN's face is not familiar to him, he would display the photograph to his assistant and advised the FBI in the event DOEDEN appeared at the club.

By letter dated 9/11/70, Sacramento furnished a copy of the Sutter County Probation background record on DOEDEN, dated 3/12/63. In this record DOEDEN listed as CALIF. references [redacted] telephone [redacted] and [redacted]

He listed former employments as KHGR Radio, Yuba City, from 1957 - 1959; KPAY Radio, Chico, for six months in 1959; KMET Radio, Paradise, for eight months in 1960; and KHAR Radio, Yuba City, for six months in 1961. In each case, he listed himself as an announcer.

Enclosed for Buffalo is one copy of the Subject's identification record.

For the information of the Bureau, on January 14, 1975,
a San Francisco Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF) agent advised the case Agent that DOEDEN had been arrested on a firearms charge in Buffalo, New York, and that ATF Agent [redacted] New York City, was knowledgeable regarding the circumstances of the arrest.
Based upon this information, the New York Office contacted [redacted] and determined that DOEDEN had not been arrested, but that DOEDEN's name had come up in an ATF investigation.

Referenced letter set out background information of this case. Referenced letter did not include the fact that in connection with the search for and seizure of weapons at [redacted]

[redacted] was arrested.

On January 23, 1975, [redacted] ATF Agent, telephoned
San Francisco FBI and advised he would be attempting to locate DOEDEN upon his arrival in Buffalo. He indicated he was in possession of the information in referenced letter. Additionally, he advised that a Suffolk County Police informant had learned that [redacted] was holding the guns in her possession at the time of her arrest for DOEDEN. [redacted] advised one of the guns was determined to have been originally owned by [redacted] which information was already contained in the San Francisco file, and the other, a Colt Model 357, was originally bought by [redacted] [redacted] date of birth [redacted] on September 8, 1969, possibly at Manteca, California. San Francisco indices are negative regarding [redacted] indicated that DOEDEN left Long Island en route to Buffalo in the company of a male in his late teens. The source of most of [redacted] information seems to be the Suffolk County Police Department.

The above information is furnished to Buffalo inasmuch as it is likely [] will be in contact with the Buffalo Office.

San Francisco feels that there is little justification for continuing this fugitive-type investigation to locate DOEDEN. A review of the file indicates he has never been able to gain the respect of those who have known him and he is considered unstable. It would appear that he is dangerous based upon the fact he finds it necessary to carry a weapon at all times, but his position of leadership of a revolutionary group does not appear to have any foundation in fact. UACB, San Francisco is closing this case administratively.

Sacramento should discontinue investigation.

Re San Francisco letter, dated 2/4/75; and Bureau airtel, dated 2/12/75.

On 2/13/75, [REDACTED] ATF, Buffalo, New York, furnished the following:

DOEDEN is currently of interest to ATF, Buffalo. The primary focus of interest stems from a weapon which was allegedly stolen by the subject from a former associate in California, and which was subsequently recovered in New York State by ATF. ATF is presently attempting to verify that subject perpetrated the theft, since, if this can be done, [REDACTED] feels ATF can probably obtain an arrest warrant for subject.

[REDACTED] stated that the primary problem will be in locating subject, as he is apparently a "floater" who does not remain in one place for any length of time. [REDACTED] said he has an informant who said subject had departed Long Island, New York, en route to Buffalo. He added, however, that a former associate of subject is reportedly in Binghamton, New York, and he is wondering whether the informant confused Binghamton and Buffalo. [REDACTED] said he has not been able to contact the informant for three months, but intends to do so in the future.

Buffalo is making appropriate inquiries with logical sources and local law enforcement authorities to determine whether subject is in this area.

Investigation has failed to determine subject's location in past three years. It has been stated that Doeden, while espousing revolutionary and terrorist activities, is unstable and never has been able to gain respect of those who have known him, thus he does not have leadership qualities. Enclosure to referenced letter notes that the group led by Doeden in 1970 was nothing more than a "paper tiger." While it is granted there is no evidence that subject continues to espouse revolutionary goals to be achieved through violence, and his retention on ADEX is questionable, nevertheless he continues to have the potential to initiate revolutionary violence should the occasion arise. He reportedly stole a pistol in California which was subsequently recovered in New York State by Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms in early 1975, and furthermore, in the early part of this year he was reported to be in New York State. Subject, who is in his late 30s, was reportedly accompanied by a male in his late teens while in New York State. Based on the above difference in age there is a possibility that Doeden could possess strong influence over younger individuals and thus lead to a leadership role in any of their revolutionary activities. he may engage in. Accordingly, before a conclusion is reached in this matter Doeden should be located, interviewed, and his current activities determined.

Since [redacted] may know his current whereabouts, Bureau feels she should be reinterviewed by Sacramento and furnished a copy of newspaper article which indicates subject does possess revolutionary tendencies, at least in 1970. It should be explained to her he is not

Terrorist Group A 'Paper Tiger'

By Ed Montgomery

LARGO, a newly founded revolutionary group which last week threatened widespread death and destruction, is just a paper tiger in the opinion of intelligence agents.

For one thing, they point out, dedicated revolutionaries don't advertise.

On March 11, the "underground" National Liberation Front Continental Armed Services Division of the Liberation Army Revolutionary Group (Organization LARGO) sent letters to officials in various Northern California counties threatening all manner of dire things.

An unsigned "Declaration of Entity and of Purpose," denounced the federal government and warned:

"All citizens are hereby notified that a state of revolution shall begin March 15. All power to the people."

The letters threatened destruction of "installations directly under the control of federal forces or their allies."

Included in the allies category and "subject to attack" were listed all uniformed members of the military, highway patrolmen, police officers, deputy sheriffs, National Guardsmen and "border patchmen" between San Francisco and the Oregon border.

The letters were mailed from Berkeley. It took county, state and federal of 15 hours to trace the mis-sives.

They emanated from a back room in the Little Red Bookstore, an outlet for Maoist, pro-Viet Cong propaganda at 3191 Mission St. here, according to investigators.

Wanted

Intelligence agents have termed the letters the work of Jerri William Doeden, 32, operating from the Little Red Bookstore as Gino Savo. He formerly lived in Chico, where authorities hold a warrant for his arrest on non-support charges.

"As anarchists and revolutionaries go, he is strictly small potatoes," an agent for the State Department of Justice said.

"While he boasts of having hundreds of automatic weapons and talks of his legions now undergoing guerrilla training in the hills, the fact is he has scarcely half a dozen dedicated followers, and most of them can be classified as kooks."

"We do have true anarchists and revolutionaries in our midst, but he isn't one of them."

Another source said Doeden recently attempted to form a coalition with heads of the Red Guard and Revolutionary Union in the Palo Alto area and was rebuffed.

One potential disciple recently attracted to Doeden's operation is a former downtown art store stock clerk who considers himself a source of manufacture.

Well known to intelligence agencies who discount his expertise, this prospective recruit under the pseudonym of "Claude," recently emerged in a local newspaper as an authority on bombs.

Exhibited were a number of crude bombs which he assertedly purchased on the open market. Agents say he made them.

Doeden was not to be found at the Little Red Bookstore yesterday. Nor was "Claude."

A young clerk named Sylvia behind the counter said "Gino Savo" had been called out on urgent business and that "Claude" had not been around for two or three days.

Posters

Revolutionary posters depicting the Venceremos cane cutting brigade in Cuba, revolutionist Emiliano Zapata and the facsimile of a Bank of America check showing the Isla Vista branch burning in the background, adorn the Little Red Bookstore walls.

Publications available include the Peking Review, Black Panther and National Guardian, along with books by H. Rap Brown and Jerry Rubin. Prominently displayed is a printed slogan: "Marxism - Marxism - Marxism, dare to fight, Dare to Win."

[redacted] stated that she still does not believe that [redacted] preached terrorism or revolution and that the fact that he may have worked in the Little Red Bookstore did not mean that he wrote all the things attributed to him. She said she felt [redacted] reputation was questionable and that he was a "loudmouth" who wrote things and did a lot of flag waving to further his own career.

[redacted] said that she was being truthful that she had not heard from JERI since her mother had died four years ago and that she knew no way to contact him even if her life depended on it. [redacted] again mentioned that [redacted] had once been an alcoholic but said that he had told her he had quit drinking the last time she saw him.

After a lengthy conversation, [redacted] agreed that [redacted] may be capable of ideas and sympathies which she is not aware of. She said that she would contact the FBI immediately if she heard anything from JERI but she felt that it was unlikely he would contact her. She said she would like to have JERI interviewed so this matter could be cleared up.

[redacted] appears sincere in her comments to the interviewing Agent and in the fact that she does not know where he is. However, she appears not to be convinced [redacted] has revolutionary tendencies or poses a threat to anyone and, because of this, it is questionable if she will tell the FBI if she does have contact.

Re FD-122, dated 12/23/75.

As the Bureau is aware, the Subject has been in a missing status for approximately five years. He was last seen in San Francisco, California, in January 1971.

Since January 1971, the Subject's activities and location have been unknown. He has apparently severed all contacts with his family and is in a transient status in some unknown location.

On 10/22/75, a review of the records of the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) revealed that the Subject had not renewed his driver's license since 1971. On the same date, a further check of the records of the California Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (CII) also revealed that the Subject had not been arrested since January 1971.

The [redacted] was last contacted by Sacramento Division in July 1975 and she was unable to furnish any additional information pertaining to the Subject's location or activities.

As the Bureau is aware, the National Convention of the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) was held in Boston, Massachusetts in July 1975. After viewing photographs taken at that convention, an Agent of the San Francisco Division felt that one of the individuals bore a strong resemblance to the Subject. As a result, appropriate leads were set out to Boston, who has since replied. Boston advised that the Subject by name or face is unknown to sources in their Division. At the time of this writing, the identity of the individual that was photographed at the National PFOC Convention is unknown. However, it was not apparently identical with the Subject.

In referenced communication, San Francisco has requested that the Subject be removed from ADEX and if the Bureau concurs with that recommendation, San Francisco will then recommend that this matter be closed.

It is the further opinion of San Francisco that all logical investigation has been conducted in an effort to locate the Subject of this case. Because he has been missing for almost five years and no information has been developed in this Division or any other Division pertaining to his current activities, it would seem logical to assume that he has not been involved in any extremist-type activities or he would have come to the attention of whatever Division he is now located in. It is also the opinion of San Francisco that because of the extended period of apparent inactivity on the part of the Subject that he no longer falls within the current investigative guidelines for any active investigation because he is not known to have broken any laws of which the FBI has investigative jurisdiction and also because he has not known to have engaged in any activity that would make him a realistic threat to the Internal Security of the United States.

LEADS

SAN FRANCISCO

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA: Will close this matter if the Bureau concurs in San Francisco's recommendation to delete the Subject from ADEX.

JERI WILLIAM DOEDEN, White, male, date of birth 11/21/37, at Cookston, Minnesota, FBI No. 190-531E, originally came to the attention of the FBI in 1970, when he founded a group called Liberation Army Revolutionary Group Organization (LARGO). This group publicly declared in March of 1970, by mailing letters to various Northern California officials, a state of revolution to begin on 3/15/70 in Northern California.

In December, 1970, Subject claimed to have small organized groups ready to proceed with the revolution to commence the latter part of January, 1971, which would include acts of violence in different sections of California.

None of the above threats made by the Subject took place; however, [REDACTED]

Since January, 1971, Subject's whereabouts have been unknown. Information has been received that Subject may have purchased pistols in New York, in January, 1973, under an alias. Investigation at New York was unsuccessful in locating or determining if the Subject actually was identical to that person.

In September, 1975, Special Agent of the FBI, San Francisco, California, viewed photographs taken at the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee (PFOC) National Conference in Boston, Massachusetts, in July 1975. After viewing these photographs, the agent believed that one of the photographs bore a strong resemblance to the Subject. Subsequently, leads were set out to the Boston Division to determine if the Subject was known there. Boston contacted logical sources familiar with Weathermen and other extremist-type activities in their division and subsequently advised the Subject was unknown to them.

The Subject is known to be an alcoholic and apparently has been a transient, moving from place to place for the last four years. The Subject has not been heard from and apparently has broken off contact with his family.

Although the Subject has been missing for a period of approximately four years and his activities have been unknown, it is not believed that he now constitutes a realistic and immediate threat into the internal security of the Nation.

Because the Subject does not meet the current criteria for being included on the ADEX, it is, therefore, recommended that he be removed.
